

ANCIENT AND MASONIC ORDER OF THE SCARLET CORD

Regalia Quick Reference Guide

1st Grade

Cord worn around waist with tassels on left hip. Ancient key suspended around neck.

2nd Grade

Cord worn around waist with tassels on right hip. Miniature scroll suspended around neck.

3rd Grade

Cord worn on left shoulder with tassels on right hip. The breast jewel should also be worn in the O.S.M. to the left of the Princes jewel.

President

Presidents and Past Presidents wear an anointing horn on the ribbon of their 3rd Grade breast jewel.

4th Grade

Cord worn on right shoulder with tassels on left hip. The breast jewel should also be worn in the O.S.M.

Provincial Officer*

Provincial sashes are worn over the top of the cord. The collarette is worn under the shirt collar.

4th Grade & Provincial

The 4th Grade cord is still worn under any Provincial sash as is the breast jewel.

Grand Officer*

Grand Officers do not wear cords but do wear the breast jewel indicating their Grade.

Inauguration jewel

If owned, should be worn to the left of the 3rd or 4th Grade jewel.

5th / 6th Grade

The star of the Grade is worn even with a chain, and under any robe of office as well as in the O.S.M.

* A collarette denotes active rank, at the expiry of which a rosette may be affixed.

Dep. & Asst. Prov.G.Summus

if also Grand Officers, will usually wear their red regalia unless in their own Province and acting in their Provincial capacity, in which case they wear their yellow regalia.

Regalia in the Consistory

- Companions wear the regalia of their highest rank, with the exception of the President of a Consistory who wears the President's sash in place of his own.
- The collar or chain of President and Primus is worn over any sash.
- Only one sash is to be worn at once, including during investiture of officers.
- Apart from the President, Consistory sashes are only worn if the officer holds no other rank.

✘ Tzaddikim wear their collarette at all times, even at the Festive Board, but should only wear their sash of office and carry a sword when acting in the discharge of their duties as Tzaddikim. They continue to wear the jewel of their Grade, and when not on duty wear their cord.
